

Please do not allow weakening of Indiana's law on telemarketing. We can eat dinner in peace now with only charities calling. Phone calls are important but not welcome when just solicitations. They invade our privacy and ruin our peace.